Dear [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Thanks for the response. The manuscript, Through the Eyes of a Lawman is a bit long but it is not complex and is basically anecdotes. If you ever happen to trip over a DEA POC for a prepublication review I'd much appreciate it. I have attached the manuscript for your review. Thanks,

Hello Mr. Butler,

My name is [REDACTED] I am the Prepublication Review Coordinator for the FBI. I did receive a call from Mr. Bishop's office a few days ago. I am the appropriate Point of Contact to review your manuscript. Feel free to send it to this address.

We have a 30 working day review policy, meaning that we like to have our reviews done within 30 working days. Due to the complexity or nature of certain cases this may be extended, but that is not often the case.

If your work does involve DEA material as well, I would recommend sending it to them, although I can not speak for how their review process works. While I don't have a contact for them, I did find an address and phone number on the internet which may point you in the right direction:

Freedom of Information Operations Unit (SARO)
Drug Enforcement Administration
700 Army Navy Drive
Arlington, VA 22202

I hope this helps. I look forward to reading your work. Feel free to contact me if you have any other questions.

Dear FBI Representative:

I have been given your e-mail address by the Office of Congressman Tim Bishop. I have sent several e-mails to the Department of Justice and received no response. The Congressman's Office advises you can review the manuscript to satisfy approval. If for some reason the DEA has to separately review the work please provide a person to contact via e-mail.

I was [REDACTED]

Based on my recollection of a Memorandum of Understanding I believe I have an obligation to forward the manuscript for approval by the DOJ. While the manuscript deals with many subjects, including the FBI and DEA, I avoided any details regarding methods and sources used in the FBI and DEA. I prefer to e-mail the document, in the Word format, to the appropriate official.

Please acknowledge receipt of this e-mail and I will forward a copy of the writing in the MS Word format at your request.

Thank you for your consideration. I await your reply.

Hello,

My name is [redacted] - I am [redacted] [redacted] As part of [redacted] Master's program, we must submit a final thesis on a topic of our choosing that somehow relates to [redacted]
While my thesis is not complete, I was told that we could submit chapters to your office as we finish so as to jump-start the pre-publication review process. So here are my first three chapters and preliminary bibliography (60 pgs). I anticipate writing one final chapter (approx. 20 pgs) in the next 45 days, so I will submit that as soon as I am finished.

Just to clarify, I can still make edits for grammatical or organizational reasons without having to re-submit, correct? And if I do make a substantive change to the thesis, I only have to re-submit the pages that were changed, not the whole thing, correct?

Finally, I just wanted to note that my thesis is unclassified and based completely on open source reporting. I also do not plan to submit it for publication upon completion. Not sure if that matters, but I just thought I'd let you know up front.

Will I be sent a notice when your review is complete? I'm new to this process, so I'd really appreciate a quick rundown of how it works...

Thank you!
